
A Soldier to my Heart - Serenity Prayer

God, Source, Our Creator...

May I Be Granted...

The humility and inner peace to accept that there are things I neither can or are meant to change...

The courage and strength to take action on the things I can one step at a time...

The grace of my inner wisdom to know when I need to surrender and when I need to stand up for what I believe.

And the freedom of...

Making choices instead of decisions

Feeling and acting instead of thinking and planning

Having experiences instead of successes and failures...

May I live as a Soldier to my Heart...leading with love, kindness and compassion for myself and for others...
knowing my heart is the connection to my Soul...

And so it is....
